

Professional Licensure Disclosure:

International College of Broadcasting has determined the Broadcasting Diploma Program, Video Production and Recording Audio Engineering associate degree program and Multimedia Production and Broadcasting associate degree program curricula meet state educational requirements for professional licensure and certification in the state of Ohio.

For specific licensure requirements, please contact the appropriate school representative.